Dress Code Policy

OpEzee's goal is to provide a workplace environment that is comfortable and inclusive for all employees. Times are a changing and the global trend is smart casual at work in most of the dynamic organizations. OpEzee's dress code would be smart casuals on all the days; however we expect that your business attire will exhibit good judgement and professional taste. Courtesy to co-workers and your professional image to co-workers should be the factors that are used to assess that you are dressing in business attire that is appropriate.

Below is the dress code policy at OpEzee.

Smart Casuals

Smart casual attire includes jackets, shirts, khaki pants, jeans, t-shirts, skirts, dresses, and sweater that, while not formal, are appropriate for a business environment.

Torn or faded jeans, crushed clothing, spaghetti tops and footwear such as flip flops, sneakers, and sandals are not appropriate.

Employees who wear business attire that is deemed inappropriate in this workplace will be dealt with on an individual basis rather than subjecting all employees to a more stringent dress code policy.

We hope that you will follow the above mentioned dress code policy and expect that your business attire will demonstrate good judgement and professional taste.

1) Lunch and Breaks

A maximum of 15 minutes of tea break twice a day is allowed. Lunch break again is not stipulated however 30 minutes during 12:30pm – 2:30pm is allowed.

6) Sexual Harassment

Policy Statement

OpEzee is committed to ensuring employees are treated fairly and equally in an environment free of intimidation and sexual harassment. Sexual harassment is an unacceptable form of behaviour, which will not be tolerated under any circumstances. It is also unlawful. All complaints of sexual harassment will be treated seriously and promptly, with due regard to confidentiality. Disciplinary action will be taken against any employee who breaches the policy.

Sexual harassment is any unwanted, unwelcome or uninvited behaviour of a sexual nature, which makes a person feel humiliated, intimidated or offended. Sexual harassment can take many different forms and may include physical contact, verbal comments, jokes, propositions, the displaying of offensive material or other behaviour, which creates a sexually tense or hostile working environment. Sexual harassment can occur between an employee and a co-worker, supervisor, manager, agent, consultant or contractor.

Sexual harassment is not just unlawful during working hours or in the workplace itself; the behaviour is unlawful in any work-related context, including conferences, work functions, business or field trips, and interactions with clients.

OpEzee encourages any employee who feels they have been harassed to contact HR. The company aims to provide a working environment that is free of workplace harassment or intimidation.

OpEzee recognizes comments and behaviour that do not offend one person can offend another. Management accepts individuals may react differently and expects this right to be generally respected.

Any complaints or reports of sexual harassment will be treated promptly, seriously and sympathetically. They will be investigated thoroughly, impartially and confidentially. Managers and supervisors must act immediately on any reports of sexual harassment. Employees will not be at a disadvantage in their employment conditions or opportunities as a result of lodging a complaint.

Appropriate disciplinary action will be taken against anyone in this company's employment who is found to have sexually harassed a co-worker. Depending on the severity of the case, consequences can include an apology, counselling, transfer, dismissal, demotion or other forms of disciplinary action. Immediate disciplinary action will also be taken against anyone who victimizes or retaliates against a person who has complained of sexual harassment.

OpEzee has a responsibility to prevent sexual harassment.

Therefore, managers and supervisors have a responsibility to:

- monitor the working environment to ensure acceptable standards of conduct are observed at all times
- model appropriate behaviour themselves
- treat all complaints seriously and take immediate action to investigate and resolve the matter
- refer complaints to another manager if they do not feel they are the best person to deal with the case (e.g. if there is a conflict of interest or if the complaint is particularly complex or serious)

All employees have a responsibility to:

- comply with the organization's sexual harassment policy

- offer support to anyone who is being harassed and let them know where they can get help and advice (they should not approach the harasser themselves)
- maintain complete confidentiality if they provide information during the investigation of a complaint (employees who spread gossip or rumours may expose themselves to defamation action)

Objective

To foster a professional, open and trusting workplace.

Application

The sexual harassment policy will be successfully applied when all staff is treated on merit by their managers, by peers, by direct reports and by all other team members.

Process

Making a Complaint:

If you believe you are being, or have been, harassed, follow the procedure below:

- inform the offender the behaviour is offensive, unwelcome, and against company policy and should stop (only if you feel comfortable enough to approach them directly)
- keep a record of the incident(s)
- if the unwelcome behaviour continues, contact your supervisor or manager for support
- if this is inappropriate, you feel uncomfortable, or the behaviour still persists, contact HR

Receiving a Complaint:

When HR receives a complaint, he/she should follow the procedure below:

- listen to the complaint seriously
- treat the complaint confidentially
- allow the complainant to bring another person to the interview if he/she chooses to
- ask the complainant for the full story, including what happened step by step
- take notes, using the complainant's own words

- ask the complainant to check your notes to ensure your record of the conversation is accurate
- explain and agree next action with the complainant
- if investigation is not requested:
 - act promptly
 - maintain confidentiality
 - pass your notes on to your manager
- if investigation is requested, or is appropriate, follow the procedure outlined

Investigating a Complaint:

When HR investigates a complaint, he/she should follow the procedure below:

- interview all directly concerned, separately
- interview witnesses, separately
- keep records of interviews and investigation
- do not assume guilt
- interview the alleged harasser, separately and confidentially
- let the alleged harasser know exactly what he/she is being accused of
- give him/her a chance to respond to the accusation
- listen carefully and record details
- make it clear he/she does not have to answer any questions
- ensure confidentiality, minimize disclosure
- determine appropriate action based on investigation and evidence collected
- check to ensure the action meets the needs of the complainant and company

If resolution is not immediately possible, the complainant should be referred to more senior management.

If the resolution requires the authority of a more senior manager, the complainant should be referred to the appropriate level.

Outcomes as they affect the complainant should be discussed with the complainant to ensure that needs are met, where appropriate.

Potential Outcomes:

If the complaint is found to be justified, the complainant may be entitled to any or all of the following:

The complainant may receive:

- commitment the behaviour will cease
- private apology (verbal or written)
- transfer, with no job disadvantage

7) Office Equipment

Purpose

The main objective behind this policy is to control the internal cost or wastage by using the internal communication devices (Internet and telephone) and Office Equipment (scanner, printer and photocopier). The purpose of this policy is to protect the information assets of OpEzee.

Scope

This policy provides guidance on the use of mobile and desk telephones, the circumstances and conditions for the usage and the criteria for the provision of Mobile Reimbursement to the employees

Coverage

This policy applies to all the employees of OpEzee who make use of the technical resources of the company.

Personal Telephone Calls

Telephones are intended for the use of serving our customers and in conducting the Company's business. Personal usage during business hours is discouraged except for extreme emergencies.

It is required by all the employees to ensure that the mobile ring tones should be to an extent where it is audible to self and not to the whole company.

Internet Usage

Company provided systems, computer files, the e-mail system, Internet access and the software furnished to employees are company property and are to be used for company business only, and not for personal use to communicate with friends or family or to access the Internet for personal purposes. Electronic mail sent from the company should be treated the same as any other communication that is sent.

All communications represent OpEzee as a whole, and as such, should be written in a professional and appropriate manner. OpEzee prohibits the use of Internet access and the e-mail system in ways that are disruptive, offensive to others or harmful to morale, including sexually explicit messages, images and cartoons, ethnic slurs, racial comments, off-color jokes or anything that could be construed as harassment or shows disrespect for others, defames or slanders others, or otherwise harms another person or business.

Employees may access the Internet for studying and update knowledge to either complete their certifications or to retrieve the information that is useful for the individual growth and also for the growth of the company. Any employee is restricted from attempting to elicit information which is not relevant and is not eligible for its access. If any employee is found to do the same then it is considered violation of the policy.

In order to enforce these policies, computer, Internet and e-mail usage may be monitored by OpEzee, including retrieving and reading e-mail messages and other computer files, and monitoring of Internet traffic.

Printer and Photocopier Usage

All the employees should understand the importance of using the office equipment economically.

Please follow ethics while using printers and photocopier:

- Ensure there are no letter heads placed in the printer while taking a print if it is not required to take on the same.

- Ensure to handle the machines smoothly as rough handling may cause to spoil the system.

In case of cartridge shortage or any other trouble please inform the GM about the same .

For rough usage or for informal usage, photocopy or print can be taken on one sided papers too.

8) Smoking, drugs and alcohol

OpEzee is committed to providing its employees with a smoke-free working environment. Smoking is prohibited on the premises.

Drugs and alcohol are also prohibited.

OpEzee is committed to providing and maintaining a working environment that is healthy, safe and productive for all of its employees.

Employees:

- ◆ must not attend work under the influence of drugs or alcohol;
- ◆ must not perform duties while under the influence of drugs or alcohol; must not consume drugs or alcohol on work premises;
- ◆ and must not sell or distribute alcohol or drugs during workhours or on work premises.

Employees are required to conduct themselves professionally and in accordance with OpEzee's policies at all work related functions where alcohol is served.

9) Equal Employment Opportunity

Policy Statement

OpEzee provides equal employment opportunity to all qualified persons without discrimination on the basis of age, sex, race, disability, marital status or religion in accordance with applicable local, state and national laws and regulations.

OpEzee will make reasonable job accommodation for persons with disabilities who can perform the essential functions of the position for which they are qualified and selected.

All employment and promotion decisions will be based solely upon individuals' qualifications, experience, prior contribution and demonstrated capacity to perform at higher or improved levels of performance and will be in accordance with the principle of equal employment opportunity. OpEzee will take whatever affirmative action is necessary to attract and retain qualified persons.

Objective

The objective of the Equal Opportunity Policy is to support the attraction and retention of employees that contribute most to the development of the OpEzee's business.

Application

The Equal Employment Opportunity policy will be successfully applied when the best-qualified and experienced candidates available regardless of personal circumstances fill all roles.

Process

The Equal Opportunity Employment process is reflected throughout OpEzee staff recruitment and retention processes.

10) Separation Policy

Retirement

The normal retirement age is 60 years. As per the requirements of the company, retirement age of any employee can be extended and the same needs to be accepted by the employee

Resignation

Your resignation email will have to be sent over to your reporting manager with copy (cc) to the Human Resources Department. The separation process shall be initiated by HR only after the concurrence of the Reporting Manager. Once an employee resigns, he/she will not be covered under any ongoing review and will not be applicable for any incentives, payouts or benefits from the date of resignation.

Upon separation from the company, you are required to return all property, equipment, materials, records and documents that have been borrowed from the company. You should also obtain clearance of all outstanding dues to/from the company.

Acceptance of Resignation

Reporting Manager & HR shall both

- 1) Meet with the employee who has resigned.
- 2) Provide the acceptance on the resignation after the meeting.

A valid resignation acceptance does require concurrence from both the reporting manager and HR. Verbal commitments or assurances provided to the employee are invalid unless accompanied by an email in writing.

The relieving date will be communicated only by HR to the employee through an email.

1. Notice Period

All employees are now onwards governed by the notice period policy.

Minimum Notice Period for an employee/contractor – 45 days.

Minimum Notice Period for an employee/contractor in management team – 90 days.

This policy supersedes all previous notifications, offer letters or any communication that the company may have done in the past. Deviations require approval from ED only. Irrespective of a deviation – any employee who serves a notice period less than indicated above is liable towards a deduction in salary and a delayed payout of 90 days for any dues from the company. Note – This shall be also applicable if an employee or contractor is under training/internship/probation.

The notice period starts from the day that the resignation is accepted by Reporting Manager and HR (both) mandatorily. For this reason, the heads are requested to inform HR as soon as the first intimation is received (in case the employee fails to intimate both during resignation).

Waiving of Notice Period

The decision of waiving off the notice period is at the sole discretion of the ED. Comparisons/precedence's may neither be quoted, nor will be entertained. In the event that an employee has failed to service the notice period, the company will view it very seriously and reserves the right to seek any legal measures against the employee/contractor.

Clearance Procedure

The notification for (1) Transition (2) No Dues Certificate (3) Balances on Claims or any other information shall come from HR Department only.

The latest relieving form can be received by the employee from the HR department. Obtaining the necessary clearances from all departments is the employee's responsibility.

Employee should begin this procedure about 3 days in advance to his last date in the organization and send it to HR for generation of relieving document.

If you are in possession of Company assets, (for example Cell phone/Laptop/Corporate Credit Card/ Data Cards) full & final settlement will be initiated only after you hand them back in perfect condition to the Company, along with the duly filled “No Dues Certificate”.

Exit Interview

An exit interview will be conducted by HR before the employee leaves the company.

It will provide the company with information, which may form the basis for improving the work environment. Except in cases of business necessity, the anonymity of the source of information obtained during an exit interview will remain strictly confidential.

Full & Final settlements of individual accounts

Full & Final settlements will be done only through the Head Office. The full and final settlements will be done within 60 working days of the employee leaving the organization.

However, the Provident Fund process (when applicable) will take longer up to 4 months. In full and final settlements any dues payable by the employee to the employer by way of advances taken, notice period compensation amount, non-serving of Minimum Commitment period, any training fee incurred during the past 6 months of leaving etc will be deducted and if any amount payable / receivable to / from employee has to be settled and only then the F & F Cheque will be settled. In case of any uncontrolled delays – the settlement process can take longer at times.

Termination

The company reserves the right to terminate employment of any employee/contractor due to any reasons. In such exceptional circumstances – the notice period from the company may not be applicable.

11) Laptop

This facility may be available to some employees. This is not an entitlement and is dependent on the nature of the job assigned by the management.

You are expected to return the laptop in good condition on cessation of your service. The company reserves the right to make deductions from your salary for any damages based on the evaluation rate determined by the Finance Department.

You are restricted from loading and utilizing pirated/unlicensed software on the laptops. Employees undertake that they will not download any unauthorized or illegal software on their laptops (or any device that the company owns). The employees will be solely responsible for this act if found out at any point of time and will be personally liable for the action taken.

12) Excessive Absenteeism

Excessive Absenteeism is defined as regularly taking leaves counting up to a minimum of 4 days per month or 2 days randomly in a week. Employees determined to be excessively absent will be subject to disciplinary action (including loss of pay or even termination without notice) which is up to the discretion of the Management and HR.

13) Absconding

Unauthorized leave of absence (with or without information from employee) of more than 2 days will be considered as absconding. All absconding employees will be dealt with strictly and will lose their right to any payment of arrears from the company for the previous period of time.

14) Employee Conduct and Work Rule

To ensure orderly operations and to provide the best possible work environment, OpEzee expects employees to follow code of conduct that will protect the interests and safety of all the employees and the organization.

It is not possible to list all forms of behavior that are considered unacceptable in the workplace.

The following are examples of infractions of rules of conduct that may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

- ◆ Theft or inappropriate removal or possession of property.
 - ◆ Falsification of timekeeping records.
 - ◆ Working under influence of alcohol or illegal drugs.
 - ◆ Possession, distribution, sales, transfer, or use of alcohol or illegal drugs at workplace, while on duty, or while operating employer-owned vehicles or equipment.

 - Sexual or any other mode of harassment.
 - Possession of dangerous or unauthorized materials.
 - Excessive absenteeism or any absence without notice.
 - Unauthorized disclosure of business “secrets” or other confidential information.
 - Violation of personal policies.
 - Unsatisfactory performance or conduct.

15) Non-Disclosure Agreement

The protection of confidential business information and trade secrets is vital to the interests and the success of OpEzee. Such confidential information includes but is not limited to, the following examples:

- ◆ Compensation data
- ◆ Pending projects and proposal
- ◆ Computer processes
- ◆ Research and development strategies
- ◆ Computer program & codes
- ◆ Scientific data
- ◆ Marketing strategies
- ◆ Computer lists
- ◆ Scientific formulae
- ◆ Technological data
- ◆ Scientific prototypes
- ◆ Customer lists
- ◆ Financial information

- ◆ Human Resource strategies
- ◆ New market research
- ◆ Any client data
- ◆ Product information
- ◆ Partner products information

All employees and associated members are required to sign a non-disclosure agreement as pre condition of employment. Employees or associated members who improperly use or disclose trade secrets or confidential business information will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment and legal action, even if they do not actually benefit from the disclosed information.

16) Health and Safety Policy/Procedures

The company will take all reasonably practical steps to ensure your health, safety and welfare of you at work. The company's health and safety policy is as follows:

- The Company as far as is reasonably practical will provide and maintain premises and systems of work, which do not involve risk to your health.
- The Company will as far as is reasonably practical ensure the provision and maintenance of a working environment which is without risk to your health and which is satisfactory as regards to facilities and arrangements for our welfare.
- Such information, instruction, training and supervision will be given as is reasonably practical and necessary to safeguard your health at work.
- The Company will ensure, as far as is reasonably practical, that all provided equipment is safe.
- The Company will provide adequate information, instruction, training and supervision in the use of equipment in order to ensure your safety.
- Adequate information, instruction and training will be given for the evacuation of the Company's premises in the event of fire or other emergency.

The Company draws your attention to your legal duty while at work to take care of your own health and safety and that of your colleagues. You must familiarize yourself with the company's health and safety policy and its safety and fire rules. Please contact the GM if you have not yet understood these.

Since the company has taken measures to provide a safe and secure environment – all employees are assumed to have gone through these and understood the same. There are certain factors beyond the company's control and employees will be responsible to ensure that they also maintain a safe and healthy environment for the offices, co-workers and staff at the office.

17) Performance Review

Objective

To set a process wherein Employee's immediate superior & Head of the Department will review the performance of each staff on a yearly basis using the Performance Review / Appraisal form, and thus evaluate and improve the employees knowledge, skills and attitude and to facilitate their overall individual development.

Performance appraisals are a way to give feedback to staff regarding their performance.

Performance appraisal is a tool for communicating the skills, knowledge and attitudes required for the different job roles.

Performance appraisal involves the setting of clear quantifiable goals and objectives and assessing individual performance against specified measures.

Operative Process

An appraisal is a meeting/discussion between employee and employees Supervisor/Manager to discuss employee's performance in order to plan together employee's future. It gives you a chance to think about how employee has performed since the last appraisal or since joining the company and to agree future performance objectives.

Before the appraisal meeting, you and your Supervisor/Manager should agree a suitable time and date for appraisal. If no common consent could be arrived upon as to the suitable time and date for appraisal, then the HR will decide a suitable time date for appraisal and to which the Head of the Department would have to adhere.

Listed in appraisal forms would be the qualities/skills that are important in an employee's job.

Together along with HR & Head of the department will discuss employee's performance and the ratings in each area.

Employees will receive a copy of the completed form after employee's appraisal.

18) Work from Home

Work from Home is not permitted unless under exceptional circumstances. This requires formal prior approval from the Reporting Manager.

19) Interns

The company may offer internship program to graduates/ students as per their educational needs. Sometimes - a normal stipend may be paid in such cases to reimburse expenses. Payment of stipend will be done between 20th and 25th of every month for the previous month's effort. Incomplete internships (due to either side terminating the work) will not require the company to reimburse any expenses whatsoever to the intern.

Such interns will be not provided with an internship completion letter/ certificate. The company reserves the right to terminate the internship without assigning any reason whatsoever.

20) Payment of Salaries

Salaries are generally paid on the last day of every month. Any employee who joins in the middle of the month (any date after the 1st working day of the month) will be paid their salary in the next month's cycle.

Any employee who resigns and does not serve the required notice period or is absconding will not be eligible for any balance payments due or employment certificate from Opezee.

Contractors are paid by the 10th of every month for the previous month's effort. This is possible if the invoices of the previous month are raised on or before the last day of the month.

21) Performance Linked Payout

Certain employees may have a performance linked payment as part of their CTC. These payments will happen as and when as applicable and decided by the company.

22) Weekly Status Reporting

Every employee is responsible to report their daily progress to their manager and also provide a weekly status report to management. The obligation of submitting the reports lies with each employee in the company.

23) Relocation Policy

Relocation will be handled on a case to case basis.
